

THE COOKIE THAT COULD

People say, it's just a cookie. What can a cookie do? A Girl Scout Cookie can do a lot.

It could help send a city kid to camp.

It could help pay for a fresh change of clothes for abuse victims rushed to a shelter.

It could cheer up a soldier far from home.

visited Washington, D.C. and stood inside the Lincoln Memorial with her Girl Scout troop. The cookies you buy could be the ones that inspire a President.

Girl Scout Cookies can help bring out the confidence in a girl. It's no easy thing to ask a stranger to buy something. You have to speak up, look them in they eye, believe in what you're doing. Believe in yourself.

When you buy Girl Scout Cookies®, girls decide
where the money goes.

No university has produced as many female business owners as has the Girl Scout Cookie program.

They have big hearts and big imaginations.

A Girl Scout cookie could help buy school supplies for needy kids, or fly a troop of girls from the Great Plains or the Mississippi valley or Detroit to Washington, D.C. Some of these girls will come back to Washington as congresswomen or senators.

One day, just you wait, our first female President will reminisce about time she

With every season of Girl Scout Cookies, another generation of girls learns to set goals, make a plan, and manage money. As women, they'll need to know these things, whether their goal is to start a business, or a family.

Everybody likes cookies. And there are a lot of cookies that taste good. These are cookies that do good.
